Quarterly Print Competition—January

Our quarterly print competitions for the months of October, November, and December will be held at the end of January. The dates for submitting prints and for the judging will be in the January Rangefinder.

Start selecting images now. Having three months of prints to enter will probably take some time and effort. The monthly assignments will be found on our website in online Rangefinders.

Holiday Dinner Cancelled

Just in case you missed the announcement last month, the Holiday Dinner has been cancelled. We will try to schedule something in the spring.

November GSCCC Judging

HCC is a member of GSCCC and participates monthly in their projected image competitions. We periodically judge competitions as part of membership duties. Last week, our club judged the Color and Monochrome image competitions.

Thank you to each of the members who assisted in these judgments. Our judges were Mark Katz, John Niemand, and Ross McEathron. Marilyn Holloway and Rachel Burychka were scorekeepers. Leslie Niemand was the overall coordinator. Thank you each of you for your help.

We hope you were able to join in to view the judging and the beautiful and varied images from other member clubs. Watching a judging is an excellent way to understand what other clubs are doing in photography and also to get new ideas and maybe techniques for your own work. If you missed the judgments, watch for the future announcements.
